Expert

EXAMPLE TOPICS

- Parenting ADHD and/or Autism
- Understanding the Needs of Atypical Kids
- Raising an Unmotivated Teen
- Helping Your Disorganized Child Get Through School
- Setting Up Systems for Your Child's Executive Functioning Challenges

Dr. Russell knows first-hand the exhaustion parents face day in and day out as they seek solutions for their out-of-the-box children. Her passion for providing support to frustrated parents and their misunderstood children is fueled by her own experience of raising two children who are neurologically atypical.

Dr. Norrine Russell began Russell Coaching for Students 14 years ago. Since that time, her practice has grown to one of the largest international student coaching practices in the world, seeing hundreds of students each month. The entire team at Russell Coaching is committed to wholeheartedly supporting the psychological well-being, successful education, and healthy, happy family life of their clients.
